ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME
SOUTH AFRICAN BOOK FAIR EXHIBITOR SMME/ENTREPRENEUR SUBSIDIES
CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The South African Book Development Council (SABDC) in association with the Fibre Processing & Manufacturing Seta (FP&M Seta), intends utilising the SABF as a platform to increase access to mainstream opportunities.

Through the SABF exhibitor subsidies, it aims to encourage SMME publishers and entrepreneurs in the book sector to participate in the annual national book fair.

The Enterprise Development Programme supports greater growth in the South African book sector, as it forms part of a broader SABDC BBBEE and growth strategy. Its aim is to ensure creation and production of high-quality books that meet industry standards, through diverse players that meet the needs of all South Africans.

The SABDC invites registered book publishing companies and entrepreneurs to apply for the subsidy to exhibit at the SABF: 6 – 8 September 2019. Market Theatre Precinct, Newtown, Gauteng.

Successful applicants will start with a training programme that runs from 4-5 September 2019.

CLOSING DATE: 30 April 2019

Application forms are available from the SABDC offices at 021-914-8626/7,
